

Chapter 2

The Fear of God

Question: If wisdom is so available, why are so many people so devoid of wisdom, and what will break and end the stranglehold that corrupt people have on our Nation?

Spiritual law is woven and hidden in plain sight all through the Bible, but it is not so discernable to the lost, unsaved, or brand-new believers. It is camouflaged, so to speak, from Satan and his minions and from any humans who serve him. It is hidden from us believers for our use so we can find it, and search it out, and use the wisdom of it. That is why words like mysteries are used. But to seasoned believers in Christ, who have grown in discernment, the mystery of spiritual laws begins to come clear, and those laws should be taught regularly in pulpits around our Nation. Faith is a law, love is a law, and sowing and reaping is a law. This last one, sowing and reaping, is the one that the far-left radicals who have no use for the things of God had ought to be concerned about.

“Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap.” Galatians 6:7

This verse is quite sobering. It should be noted though that there is a positive side to this verse and a person who continuously is sowing good things throughout his or her life will reap massive rewards and blessings, in this life and in the next. On the reverse side, evil people need not wait until Hell and judgement to taste judgment, for the spiritual laws bring to pass a reaping in this life which can be terrible and horrific. A believer who follows Christ however should never wish this reaping on an evil person, and Jesus told us to pray for our enemies. It is a violation of God’s spiritual laws to use revenge, retribution, and to repay evil for evil. That is not the kind of God He is. The more you learn about Him, and the closer you get to Him in a two-way relationship, the more you will appreciate this about Him and this part of His character. That is because in your life, you are the biggest recipient of His mercy, His grace, and His love and forgiveness.

The corruption in American politics seems to be greater than it has ever been since the founding of our Nation. Evil is called good, and good is called evil. Politicians have walked away from their oaths of office to uphold the Constitution in their hearts, and journalists have turned their backs on their professions and all ethical standards to spin narratives that are wholly untruthful. What must God think about this condition of our Nation?

“The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.” Proverbs 9:10

Let’s discuss the fear of God. God is bigger, smarter, wiser, more powerful, and much older than us. He is our Omnipotent Creator. He is a very loving God, but we are told to fear God in this verse. This is wisdom, to fear God. Not unhealthy fear that bears bad fruit in our bodies and minds, but rather holy fear that knows we will reap what we sow through spiritual law if we do not obey Him and do His will and repent of sin. If we do evil, it will not go well for us on this earth. We will reap a reaping that we do not want. The fear of God takes this following form: it is a fear that considers His warning words will come true over us and His spiritual laws will go against us. It is a good and desirable type of fear. Satan has an unhealthy and perverted version of fear which violates spiritual laws, and we are to remove and get rid of it but keep the holy fear of God which is only profitable.

People wonder why their prayers are not working. Spiritual law has much to do with that. The Bible is God’s Word, and He cannot change it. He has told us so.

“My covenant I will not break, nor alter the word that has gone out of my lips.” Psalm 89:34

Continuing on in Psalm 89, the next verse, 35, He indicates that He would be a liar if He changed His Word. But God cannot lie, as He has said that too in the Bible. Men can lie, but God cannot lie. So, we must choose to fear God, which is healthy, and if we fear God, we have arrived at the beginning of wisdom for our lives. Once we embrace this wisdom and ask and seek God daily to help this wisdom grow, we can then begin to understand spiritual laws that affect us daily and begin to harness them in our favor and remove the violations of them that are impeding our prayers and blessings. Understand this: God cannot answer some prayers because a violation or unfulfilled condition of one or more spiritual laws is blocking that prayer, and since that spiritual law is laid out and given by God through His Word, the Bible, He cannot change it for you or anyone, no matter how much He desires to. What He will do, is, if you seek Him on it, He will reveal to you the prayer block and show you how to correct it. He does that because He loves us. He is altogether for us, but He cannot violate His own Word that He has previously spoken.

“When wisdom enters your heart, and knowledge is pleasant to your soul, discretion will preserve you; understanding will keep you, to deliver you from the way of evil, from the man who speaks perverse things, from those who leave the paths of uprightness to walk in the ways of darkness; who rejoice in doing evil, and delight in the perversity of the wicked; whose ways are crooked, and who are devious in their paths;” Proverbs 2:10-15

I am sorry to say that the last part of this verse above matches many people in this Nation who are in power. God’s wisdom is what the people of our Nation need. If more people were seekers of God and His wisdom, they would not be so susceptible to the lies coming from the mainstream media and the echo chambers of the left. We have a President who has never taught his corrupt and unlawful drug using son any wisdom. But this father could never share what he didn’t have, for if President Biden was a wise man, he would never have made a secondary career of bribery and influence peddling himself and included his son and his brother in it.

“A wicked man accepts a bribe behind the back to pervert the ways of justice.” (Proverbs 17:23)

This verse is a spiritual law. The wicked man receives a bribe to pervert something. To pervert what? Justice, or, the proper way of doing things. Let’s look at the payer of the bribes. This person is also wicked. These two are two birds of a feather to use that expression. The payer knows he has no entry or opening to a legal and acceptable method for gaining favor, so if he pays someone, he knows he can pervert the righteous way of doing something. The receiver of the bribe is just plain greedy. That means that this greedy and wicked man has sold out whatever or whoever he was supposed to be loyal to by taking the bribe. There are so many sins and spiritual laws broken here in this situation. In earlier days, if a person was caught in a bribe, they would be gone in just days from the revelation of the offense. But in this Country, we have millions of Americans who are seeing accusations of bribery and many people do not want to know anything about it, and this public has been aware of this for years. This is a problem of callousness and hard-heartedness in people that the fear of God could change. A holy fear of God would help them be rid of these evil ways, and they might have a change of heart. Where the fear of God is, is where wisdom begins. You cannot have a solid Country if this behavior is acceptable.

“If the righteous will be recompensed on the earth, how much more the ungodly and the sinner?” Proverbs 11:31

It is a verse like this one that gives hope for the injustice we routinely see on the news and on the Internet. People that attack other people with lies and false narratives are doing an ungodly thing and after a while, spiritual law will come on the scene and sort it out, for God will not be mocked. (“Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap.” Galatians 6:7) Spiritual law dictates that the righteous will get what they reaped, which is good, and the ungodly will get what they reaped, which will be their undoing. One can speculate about what a wicked prosecutor or politician or media person will reap. They might lose a marriage, or their career, or worse yet, be prosecuted for their own corruption. Sadly, and worse yet, there could be loss of life. Scripture indicates that they who are righteous will be left standing, and even receive a recompense of reward for their righteous actions. I again want to bring up love. God would have His righteous people pray for their accusers and attackers and God does not want us to rejoice when they finally stumble. It may feel gratifying, but it is best to not be vocal and arrogant about it or do any gloating. God is watching and the righteous do not want to be on the wrong side of spiritual law by prideful gloating.

“The eyes of the Lord are in every place, keeping watch on the evil and the good.” Proverbs 15:3

“The Lord is far from the wicked, but He hears the prayer of the righteous.” Proverbs 15:29

I wrote this book to show my fellow Americans who love our Country that there is every reason to hope in positive change and that God has not left us in despair. Even the way God has set up Creation with spiritual laws is in favor of the righteous. However, with every evil move we see the devil try to pull through his followers and soldiers, they are gathering wood and nails for their own gallows, to use an expression; and they are sowing seeds of destruction back into themselves, and it is a Divine mystery of God's principles and automated laws that will dictate their failure. It is one thing to fall into man's justice, and it is quite another thing to fall into the hands of the living God. For more hope, read on.

“For we know Him who said, vengeance is mine I will repay, says the Lord. And again, the Lord will judge His people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.” Hebrews 10:30-31

 Chapter 2 Comments from the Author: *****

I wrote a daily confession for myself recently that says, Donald Trump will be exonerated, acquitted, justified, and avenged. I had spoken it out for several days when God checked me one day and said, remove the word avenged. I am just being transparent with you now. I understood immediately and obeyed. It now says, Donald Trump will be exonerated, acquitted, and justified! You see, it is not for me to pronounce vengeance on anyone. I am an ambassador of Christ to those people who have attacked Donald Trump as much as anyone. Paul said that we do not wrestle with flesh and blood. (Ephesians 6) They are functioning in the power of spiritual evil, under the influence of demons, and they deserve our mercy and compassion and prayers. So, I may write about them in violation of spiritual law, and get frustrated at them sometimes, but I must keep God's perspective of them and obey God and walk in love if I want Him to back my faith and prayers in these matters. I need to rest in the fact that God said that He will avenge those who are attacked and persecuted. We do not need to use our faith for vengeance, because it is a spiritual law of God, and He reserves the right to do it.
